Religious Education

Intent, Implementation and Impact Statement

Curriculum Intent

Religious Education (R.E.) is taught across the whole school. It is taught both discreetly and where suitable, with a cross curricular approach. Through this, we aim to promote the spiritual, moral, and cultural development of all pupils.

Implementation

- Broom Barns Primary School have developed their own scheme of work which complies with the Hertfordshire Agreed Syllabus of Religious Education and follows the "Exploring Religion and Worldviews: non-statutory guidance"
- Religious Education is given dedicated time in each classes timetables
- In the Early Years, pupils are taught R.E. through both adult led learning and child initiated provision
- Whole school assemblies celebrate relevant religious festivals
- Continuous professional development is used to address updates/changes in curriculum and to share good practice
- Learning is recorded in class and individual books.

Impact

Children learn:

- To be critical, creative and reflective thinking about philosophical argument, theological (multi-faith) concepts and life issues
- To question and interpret 'Truth' claims
- Ways of conveying meaning
- Different ways of investigating the subject-matter, including a range of academic disciplines and approaches
- To listen with understanding and compassion
- To Engage positively with diversity.
