

Year 3 Learning at Home

Play pelmanism (memory game) on your own or with someone in your home.	Write your own blurb (back cover) for your favourite book.	Watch Newsround and write a story about your favourite story.	Using your senses, make a list of all the sounds and smells around you. Write a poem using these things. You can do this when you go for a walk, sit in the kitchen or even whilst lying in bed in the morning.	Sketch the view from your living room window.	Write a diary entry twice a day, for 2 days. Remember to include thoughts and feelings.
Practise the year 3 spellings: Natural Occasional Actual Accidental Medical National Capital Vocal Sensational Personal	Ask an adult to test you on your spellings: Natural Occasional Actual Accidental Medical National Capital Vocal Sensational Personal	Practise your timetables using TT Rockstars.	Logon to Bugclub and read a book.	Logon to Bugclub, read a book and answer questions about it.	Invent a new character. Draw them and annotate (label) with the characteristics they possess.
Write 20 different ways to make the answer 36.	Count the petals on a dandelion and multiply the number by 2, 5, 10, 100, 1000.	Design the wrapping for a new bar of chocolate and write a catchy slogan.	Flip a coin 60 times and record the number of heads and tails. Repeat and compare your results.	Write a poem using rhyming pairs about Summer. Read it to your family.	Measure the length of your garden with either your hands or your feet.
Draw a picture of a character from your favourite book.	Look for circles in nature when you go outside or around your house.	Make a list of 5 prepositions. Write a sentence with each one.	Sing along and dance to: 'Don't Worry, Be Happy' https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7hGtKE3mG_g	Floating eggs. Eggs sink in normal water so what can you do to make them float? Adding salt can give some surprising results.	Use the clock you made on week one, or make another one with paper or card. Learn to tell the time for quarter past and quarter to the hour. When you are confident, use minutes past the hour for conciseness.